Notice to Merchants.

FORWARDING OFFICE
S. C. R. R. Co.
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wharfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage. JAMES L. GANTT.

PROSPECTUS OF THE HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

DEVOTED TO
POLITICS, AGRICULTURE, MISCELLANY, GENERAL NEWS.
PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEARTT.
HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 19th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

And will contain original and selected articles upon Agriculture, Horticulture, Floriculture, Household Arts, Rural Architecture, Zoology, &c., &c.

It will be published with new type and clear white paper, in a neat quarto form.

PROSPECTUS OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi–Weekly, per annum...............$400
Weekly......................................200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion..............$100
Each subsequent insertion..............25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER

THE TIMES;

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro.
$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. L. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald.

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers."—Raleigh Standard.

The Literary Paper of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES,

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choicest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The fifth volume commences with the new year 1860. Engagements have been made to make this the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age; their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns, and make it the literary paper of the South. With these inducements the Publishers confidently expect several thousand increase in circulation.

But as additional incentives to the friends of the South to encourage their own literary and family paper, in which they will find none of that impure and immoral reading which sometimes they get from abroad, the Publishers of THE TIMES offer

$2,500 IN PREMIUMS

For subscribers to commence with the new volume and the new year. THE TIMES is printed weekly on eight large pages, fine paper, at $2 a year, in advance. For specimen numbers and circulars address the Publishers.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER
PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

The Steamer Nashville.

The Northern papers are much exercised in consequence of the escape of the steamer Nashville from Beaufort. The Philadelphia Inquirer has some "spirited remarks" on the subject, and a "Patriotic Lady," in the same journal, says:

"By allowing the Nashville to escape the blockade, we have exposed ourselves to the ridicule of the civilized world. We sent the Tuscarora across the ocean in pursuit of her; watched her for a long time on the English coast, and then allowed her not only to run into Beaufort with her cargo of rifles, but to escape the second time with a cargo of cotton. What an encouragement to English sympathizers with the South to decry the blockade! * * * We have exposed ourselves to contempt and derision. While the Nashville lay at Beaufort, that was the most important point to be guarded south of the Chesapeake; and our whole country will rise up in indignation at the wretched mismanagement of the blockade. No sufficient excuse can be offered."

Thus speaks an indignant and strong-minded female of Philadelphia. The following is an extract from a New York letter in a Baltimore paper:

"It is the prevailing opinion among the shipping merchants here, that the rebel steamer Nashville, before proceeding to England with her cargo of cotton, would put into Bermuda for coal, though some of them are afraid that she has gone on a cruise to the West Indies, in which case, if she is well armed, she is likely to fall in with many prizes, as there are at least thirty vessels now on their way here from ports this side of the Spanish Main.

"The fact that she has cotton on board, however, is at war with this theory, there being no market in that quarter for 'the King.' The underwriters think we shall first hear of her at Southampton. The report brought by the Empire City, by the way, that the Nashville was still lying in Beaufort harbor, must be all nonsense, as we have the testimony of officers on board both the blockading vessels Cambridge and Gemsbook, that they saw the vessel go out. The Captain of the Empire City had no other authority for his statement than a rumor current at Newbern when he left."

ARREST OF A FEMALE SPY.—A gentleman connected with the Army of the West, who arrived in this city yesterday evening, on the State train, informs us that previous to his leaving Corinth, a woman had been brought in, who was arrested while on her way to Nashville for the purpose of conveying information to the enemy. She had been within the lines for some weeks past, during which she had been very assiduous in ministering to the wants of the sick soldiers; for some reason, however, not explained to us, she fell under the suspicions of the officers, and on her departure from camp, some days ago, on pretence of a visit to her friends, a small detachment was ordered to follow and watch her.

Her movements soon convinced them that something was wrong, and keeping up the pursuit, they quickly learned that she was an enemy of the South, in service of the Federals, and that her object within our lines was to obtain a thorough knowledge of the plans and forces of the Confederates, which information she was now attempting to convey to the enemy. Becoming fully satisfied of this fact, the squad arrested her, and brought her back to Corinth; here, with what appears to us as unaccountable negligence, she was permitted to retire to a room alone without being searched, and when a short time afterward the guard proceeded to her room for the purpose of searching her, they had the mortification to discover themselves forestalled, and all that remained of the written evidence of the treason was the smell of burned paper.

[Atlanta Commonwealth.

INEXTINGUISHABLE FIRE.—Suggestions have been made to burn the blockading fleet, and as history may be worth something upon this subject, the following is submitted:

During the reign of Constantine III, the Saracens besieged Constantinople for five months, but were obliged to retire. They returned for seven years in succession, but were every time defeated by Callinicus, who invented an inextinguishable fire, by which he destroyed their ships. Water, instead of extinguishing, quickened this powerful agent of destruction.

The composition of this liquid fire was kept a secret for four hundred years. The Mahometans at length discovered and stole it. It continued to be used in war, down to the middle of the fourteenth century, when gunpowder was introduced.

The Greek fire was made of naptha, or liquid of bitumen, mixed with sulphur, and pitch extracted from green fire.

If some Callinicus will restore the Greek fire and apply it to the blockading fleet, he will carve his name high up on the roll of fame.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—A GALLANT EXPLOIT.—A correspondent mentions a gallant exploit performed lately by Dr. Strader, of Capt. John Morgan's command, which is worthy of record. Learning that a large quantity of knapsacks, left by the army of Crittenden in his masterly retreat, was in the vicinity of Livingston, Overton county, Tenn., he procured permission from Major General Hardee to go after them. Proceeding along, in citizen's dress, without even a pocket knife for protection, he collected at different places over 7,000 knapsacks, worth three dollars apiece, and got the people to loan their wagons to haul them to our army. At McMinville he also secured a quantity of saltpetre, and sixty boxes of clothing. The services of such men are valuable, and deserve to be recorded.

☞ Those who may at any time order a change in the direction of their paper will please name the office from which the change is to be made as well as the office to which the paper is to be sent in future.

We have several letters on hand ordering changes, but cannot spare the time to go through an examination of some four thousand names in order to learn the post office.

☞ Special attention is directed to the call made by Capt. E. A. Ross, for Volunteers, as published in another column.

☞ The call made by "Many Citizens," for a Public Meeting for special purposes, has been received, but the name of the author not accompanying the communication prevents our giving to it the publicity desired.

☞ We have been requested to direct attention to the notice from S. J. Lindsey, D. S., to be found in another column.

The Movements in the West.

It appears by the annexed extract from the Charleston Mercury that a fleet of Iron Clad Steamers have gone up the Mississippi to blockade the mouths of the Cumberland and Mississippi rivers. A good report from them may be expected:

"There are naval movements in progress, which may have an important bearing upon the results of the great struggle for the control of the Mississippi. We should not be surprised to learn that a fleet of New Orleans gunboats, the existence of which need no longer be a secret, have blockaded the mouths of the Tennessee and Cumberland Rivers, and that our victorious army is again hastening to the borders of Kentucky."

From Richmond.

The eulogium embraced in the Message of President DAVIS, as a token of respect to that noble General, ALBERT SIDNEY JOHNSTON, is no less touching than appropriate.

The traducers of General JOHNSTON deserve punishment the most severe. The fires of hell burning and emitting its poisonous lava in their own souls cannot be too severe a punishment for such God forsaken and hell deserving traitors.

The Wilmington Journal.

We regret that in transcribing a new sett of Mail Books, the name of this valuable Exchange was omitted to be entered in the proper place. This is our excuse, and we have made the entry.

From Island Number Ten.

The army correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, writing under date of Cairo, March 20, says the firing on Friday at Island No. 10 was quite heavy, the rebels opening from a new battery, mounted, it is supposed, with 128 pounders. The enemy could be seen cutting away trees and rapidly pushing forward other means of defence. They seem to have no idea of evacuating at present, and are daily getting more cannon in position.

Word reached the fleet on the 29th that four rebel gunboats, partly clad with railroad iron, had appeared below Point Pleasant; but as General Pope's batteries extend in an almost continuous line for fifteen miles, it is not believed they can force a passage.

From Gen. Buell's Division.

A special despatch to the Cincinnati Commercial from Indianapolis says, that Gen. Buell has assumed the command of the invading force, and at the latest advices was within fifteen miles of Beauregard at Corinth, Mississippi.

Morgan's rebel cavalry captured another train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad on Friday. Col. Curran Pope, of Kentucky, was taken prisoner, with a few other Union officers. The locomotive was run into a ditch and the cars destroyed.

Threat to Run the Blockade.

The New York Herald, of April 1st, says:

"Captain Jacob A. Cobb, master of the steamer Acorn, lately arrived at Havana from New York, publicly declared his intention of running the blockade with her and entering the Confederate service. She is a fast propeller, making easily from eleven to twelve knots, and will, under her adventurous captain, who is well known in this city, prove a troublesome customer to our blockading fleet."

A Successful Dash of a Confederate Force in East Tennessee.

The following is a copy of a telegram from a member of Congress from Tennessee to his colleague in this city:

KNOXVILLE, April 5.

Col. Vaughan has penetrated Scott county, Tenn., to Huntersville, whipped the enemy and routed him, and brought off meat, shoes, cattle and horses. He killed about forty of the enemy, and took seventeen prisoners, losing only five men. He also destroyed all the commissary stores he could not bring away. East Tennessee will be all right.

Burning of Great Bethel.

The Philadelphia Inquirer has a "special" from Watts Creek, near Warwick, Va., March 27, in which we find the following remarkable information:

"The rebel forces, under Gen. Magruder, previous to their evacuation of Great Bethel, set fire to the town about noon to-day, and completely destroyed it, leaving nothing but a mass of ruins. This is another act of vandalism on their part. You need not be surprised to hear of their burning Yorktown in a few days, as such a course may naturally be expected."

[The place the correspondent calls the "town" of Great Bethel, was, as our readers are aware, burnt by the Yankees.]

Commodore Tatnall.

The Memphis Appeal has the following complimentary notice of Commodore Tatnall:

The call of Commodore Tatnall to the command of the Virginia is the best thing the government could have done. Tatnall is known as "the lion hearted commodore," and very properly. Cool, self-possessed and clear-headed; he is yet fearless as the lion and terrible as the thunderbolt. He is known the world over as the very impersonation of courage, daring and resolution. No truer man never entered a parlor; no braver officer [illegible] He has the heart to dare, and the will to do all that any living man can do; and where he strikes, he leaves his lightning blast behind.

Commodore Tatnall must be nearly fifty-five years old, yet he is as hard and tough as a piece of live oak. He entered the navy while yet a lad, and has had his "home on the rolling deep" ever since.—He was born near Savannah, Ga., where his family resides. Since the blockade of Savannah by the Federals, he has managed with his little mosquito fleet to give them no little trouble. All he wanted was a good man-of-war, to scatter their ships to the winds. Put him in command of the Virginia, and it were better for the enemy to encounter a hurricane than the old lion of the sea.

The Battle at Corinth—Yankee Prophecies of the Result.

Our great victory at Corinth will rather put the Yankees to blush after their boastful and confident predictions of the result. Our latest Northern papers show that they counted, with almost perfect confidence, on whipping us, and that "it was the general belief of all the prominent officers of Gen. Grant's command that the rebels would retreat on their approach." To show what bright anticipations the Yankees had of the battle at Corinth, when hourly impending, we make some extracts from a letter in the New York Herald of the 1st:

The hosts are being marshalled on both sides for a grand battle. From all the indications the impending battle will be the most important of any that has yet been fought in this war.

All our scouts concur in the statement that the rebels are concentrating the main body of their forces at Corinth, Mississippi. Troops arrive there daily from Georgia, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee. Scouts estimate them now at seventy-five thousand, but forty thousand is, doubtless, nearer correct. Beauregard is in command.

The rebels have forces at Iuca and other points on the Memphis and Charleston railroad. A courier started from our headquarters two days ago across the country to Buell's advance. We still await the return of transports from Paducah. Rebel gunboats are in this neighbourhood. Deserters continue to come in from rebel posts. They say half the soldiers would desert if they could. One deserter says, out of ninety-five in his company in one of the Purdy regiments thirty-four had deserted, and twenty more were eager to do the same.

Our troops, for a week past, have been under orders to march at an hour's notice, with ten days' rations.

Our forces at Pittsburg are being rapidly augmented, steamer after steamer arriving continually, laden with fresh troops.

The latest advices from the rebel camp at Corinth give the strength of the force there at 70,000 strong. Recent indications relative to the persistent efforts of the rebels to fortify the town of Corinth would seem to demonstrate an intention to make a vigorous resistance there. It is, however, the general belief of all the prominent officers of General Grant's command that the rebels will retreat on our approach; but should a battle occur at Corinth, it will doubtless be one of the hardest fought and bloodiest affairs of the present war.

SEND THE NEGROES TO THE INTERIOR.—The Iredell Express suggests the following idea, which in our mind, we think a good one:

"People residing on the seacoast who own slaves and likely to be invaded by the Yankees, should send their negroes to the interior to be distributed among the farmers whose sons are gone to defend the country. This in a degree would supply help to make the crops that otherwise must prove short. The negroes would be well-fed, clothed, and something in the way of wages paid for them. By this arrangement the negroes would become producers instead of idle consumers, and perhaps saved to their owners. Five hundred or more of them could find good homes in Iredell and adjacent counties, and they should be sent up immediately, before the crops are pitched.

THE BALTIMORE CONFERENCE.—A meeting of a part of the members of the Baltimore Conference was held in that city recently. A number of members peremptorily had their names stricken off its roll, exhibiting their determination to go with the South. Among them were Revs. Busey, Wilson, Register, and others.

We have good news from Mississippi.—The planters are piling up their cotton and getting it ready for the faggot the moment the enemy advances. They are also sending their servants up the river to work on the fortifications; and they say they are ready to make any sacrifice the Government may require.—Appeal.

Confederate Congress.

The following resolutions were adopted in Congress to-day:

Resolved, That we have learned, with gratitude to the Divine Ruler of nations, intelligence of the great, complete and brilliant victory gained by our army in Tennessee.

Resolved, That the thanks of Congress be tendered to Gen. Beauregard, and all other surviving officers and privates in that army, for their signal exhibitions of skill and gallantry, and that they are all entitled to the gratitude of their country.

Resolved, That the death of Gen. Johnston affects Congress with profound sorrow, and that it obscures our joy with a shade of sadness at the loss of an officer so able and gallant.

Captured.

Commodore Hunter, of the Confederate gunboat Gaines, captured on the 2d instant, off Mobile, the Yankee schooner Isabel, from Key West, for Ship Island, commanded by Master's Mate Post, U. S. N. Mr. Post missed his reckoning, and entered Mobile Bay, instead of the Sound near Ship Island. The Isabel was formerly the tender W. R. King.

THE INCORRIGIBLE JOKERS.—The Yankees are determined to have their fun, if last, 1st April, between 4,000 and 5,000 of them landed near Pocotaligo, and with an air of boldness that augured something terrible, took up the line of march inland.—Gen. Evans, hearing of the movement, immediately dispatched four regiments to engage them and dispute their passage. On coming in sight the Yankees were found in full retreat to their boats, but a tall pole had been stuck in the ground at the turning point, and on it inscribed in large letters: "APRIL FOOL."

[Savannah Republican, April 5.

NEGROES RETURNING.—The Fredericksburg Herald states that a number of the negroes that ran away from their masters in King George have returned. Three of them had their backs very much lacerated, a soft of treatment they had not been accustomed to at home, and so they ran away a second time, but on this occasion from the Yankees.—Savannah News, April 8.

FROM TYBEE.—On Thursday last a large three-masted steamer came from the direction of Warsaw into Wilmington river, and then steamed up the river to within range of Fort Pulaski. A shell from the Fort was fired at her, which exploded near her stern. She soon returned to the neighborhood of Decent Island, where she has ever since remained at anchor.

A large steamer, supposed to be a transport, arrived at Tybee on the 4th. This steamer, with some seven or eight schooners, are all the vessels of the Federal fleet now at Tybee. The Federals have erected a very high tower upon the point at Round Island, upon which they float the Union flag. They use the tower as an observatory, and it is thought that they are enabled to see a great distance. The health of the garrison is good, and the men are in fine spirits.

[Savannah News, April 8.

NO LICENSES TO "NEUTRAL" RESIDENTS.—A law was passed by both branches of the Virginia Legislature on Monday, prohibiting the issue of licenses to sell any kind of merchandize to any foreign born residents, other than those who are naturalized. There are numbers of the foreign born population in active business all over the State, who upon a call for Militia, have thrown themselves upon the protection of foreign powers represented by consuls in the Confederacy. This law, passed with so much unanimity by the Legislature, will bring these men to a realization of the truth of an old saw, "it is a bad rule that won't work both ways."

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: Four hundred freight cars and fifteen locomotives are to be sent from this State to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. The wheels are being changed to suit the guage of the L. and N. Railroad, which is two inches wider than the Ohio roads.

S. C. R. R. Co.,
CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861. }

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that remittances be made to pay the duties where duties are payable, AND IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE FREE OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, as heretofore, the charges of freight, drayage and wharfage, but not the expenses connected with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

Late Forwarding Agent S. C. R. R. Co.

COME TO THE RESCUE!

Captain William Lee Davidson, commanding Company "D," 7th Regiment, (Col. Campbell's) North Carolina Troops, is anxious to recruit the ranks of his company to the maximum number authorized by the Confederate States Congress.

The military character and ability of the 7th Regiment is too well known to need comment. All persons desirous of entering one of the best drilled regiments in the Confederate service, should apply immediately to W. F. Davidson, who is authorized to enlist men for the above company.

The Confederate bounty is deposited at the [illegible] of N. C., in this place, to be paid recruits immediately after enlisting.

April 5, 1862—3t.

To the People of North Carolina.

At the request of President Davis, I have undertaken to collect all of the arms now in the hands of private citizens of our State. For that purpose I have been invested with authority to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, to impress them. I am satisfied that it will never be necessary to resort to the use of the last named power. Patriots of North Carolina, our soil is invaded, and though we have men enough to repel the invaders, our men are useless unless they have arms. Upwards of 20,000 stand of arms are now lying useless in our houses; these arms should be collected and placed in the hands of our noble defenders. None but a craven or disloyal citizen will refuse to comply with this requisition. I will immediately appoint suitable agents to go through every county in the State, empowered to borrow, purchase, or, if necessary, [illegible] entreat all true patriots to [illegible] their muskets, rifles and double-barrel shot guns (good, bad or indifferent,) to the sheriffs of the different counties, whom I do hereby authorize to receive and pay for them agreeably to the attached schedule of prices, and draw on me for the amount necessary.

For good rifles and muskets, $13 and $20 each, according to value; good double-barrel shot guns from $13 to $35, according to value; other arms and parts of arms according to valuation.

I have also been requested to purchase old scrap iron, whether cast or wrought, and of all weights, for which I will pay for the former 1½ cents per pound; for the latter 4 cents.

W. S. ASHE.
